1. I am Nicholas Baker, the Deputy Chief Constable employed by Staffordshire Police. I am also the National Police Chief Council lead for Technical Surveillance Units and Digital Forensics.
2. The NPCC fully endorse the OPEN statement made by Detective Superintendent Steve Williams of the Metropolitan Police, which has been shared with me, and, in particular, endorse the continued use of a neither nor deny response to queries that seek to interrogate police use of covert tactics and equipment. This suitably protects the unnecessary disclosure of tactics and capabilities information, which is carefully sought by Organised Crime Groups and terrorist networks.
3. We understand legitimate concerns around transparency and accountability but believe that the statutory frameworks that authorise the use of covert tactics and techniques are robust and suitably endeavour to reassure any public interest.

STATEMENT OF TRUTH
